

Program
Fanconi Anaemia Family meeting
St Vincent's Institute of Medical Research
13-14 October 2017

8:45
Arrive

9:00
Introduction

9:10
Shuh Ying Tan (St Vincent's Hospital Melbourne department of haematology, St Vincent's Institute)
Haematology 101

9:40
Andrew Deans (Head of the Genome Stability Unit, St Vincent's Institute)
Fanconi anaemia 101

10:10
Chris Fraser (Director, Blood and Marrow Transplant Program, Lady Cilento Children's Hospital, Brisbane).
Bone marrow transplants in Fanconi anaemia.

11:00
Personal reflections on Fanconi anaemia

11:15
MORNING TEA

11:40
Andrew Deans (Head of the Genome Stability Unit, St Vincent's Institute)
Fanconi anaemia research at St Vincent's Institute

12:10
Sylvie Van Twest (St Vincent's Institute)
Highlights of the Fanconi Anemia Research Fund meeting in Atlanta, USA in September 2017.

12:30
LAB TOUR

1:15
LUNCH

2:15
Lisette Curnow

Genetic counselling and Fanconi anaemia.

2:45

Jordi Surralles (Autonomous University of Barcelona, Hospital Sant Pau).

The Spanish FA experience: from diagnostics to gene discovery and therapy.

3:45

AFTERNOON TEA

4:15-5:15

Closing remarks

BREAK

Dinner

6:30pm

Coopers Inn

282 Exhibition street and corner of Little Lonsdale street.

Entertainment for the kids

Melbourne Museum.

Please go directly to the "Bug Lab" entry desk on the Lower Ground Floor directly to collect your tickets from Rob Peoples and Justin Bryce.